

HEA News

HEA AGM 2012

Toddington Village Hall, Toddington, Gloucestershire

OK then, for those of you who couldn't make, what did you miss?

- election of the new Chair of the HEA: Cath Sanderson and Vice Chair, Nick Hamilton
- election of HEA Committee for the forthcoming year
- the chance to hear about the plans for the Chelsea Flower Show's centenary celebrations and the new layouts and plans for Hampton Court and Tatton Park, from Alex Denman – see photos above
- the chance to see the exciting new themed layouts for the 2013 Hampton Court and Tatton Park Flower Shows
- the opportunity to discuss the 2013 RHS shows with their respective show managers
- the chance to meet and hear from Elizabeth Banks, President of the RHS, who gave an impromptu chat about her thoughts on 2012 and working more closely with the HEA to develop events in the future.
- the opportunity to find out more about, and book space for, the Blenheim Park Show and the South of England Show
- a delicious lunch
- an entertaining, and slightly risqué, insight into a career in Advertising
- the chance to get to know HEA members, show organisers and representatives of companies supporting the HEA with discounted product offers
- the chance to hear more about the valuable work of Perennial
- exciting news about the latest HEA member benefits, including recently negotiated, increased discounts for 2013 shows
- ...and so much more

So, make sure you don't miss the 2013 AGM: November in Suffolk.

The Horticultural Exhibitors' Association

Always in pursuit of excellence in exhibiting horticulture

Run by exhibitors for exhibitors, the HEA Committee exists to represent, and promote, the interests of all members at agricultural and horticultural shows. We work with show organisers, and stakeholders, to improve the show experience and to establish and maintain standards in floral exhibition.

For more information contact the HEA Secretary via email: secretary@h-e-a.freemove.co.uk

www.the-hea.co.uk